County Attorney F. M. Gold returned Sunday from a two days trip to his former home at Williams.

Mrs. Pete Michelbaugh was called to Chicago this week by the illness of her daughter who lives there.

The jury for the term of the superior court opening Monday is stopping at the Ideal hotel.

R. S. Barnett, representing a law book firm of Kansas City was in town this week calling on local attorneys.

Marriage license was issued in Phoenix on the 10th to Alfred E. Horn of Flagstaff, and Mary Emblem of El Cajon, Cal.

Mrs. W. M. Hughes is recovering nicely at Milton hospital after a very severe sickness following an operation there some time ago.

L. R. Lessel is looking after things at the United States forest office during the absence of Supervisor Marsh in Phoenix.

National Grazing Examiner Girdner is back from Camp Verde and Phoenix where he has been taking grazing examinations.

J. D. Dunn got back the first of the week from a lengthy stay in Phoenix, where he was looking after the duties of his office.

Dad Power is to be congratulated on the fact that he has just celebrated his eighty-third birthday. We know lots of men under forty who are as old as "Dad."

Judge E. M. Doe and Judge J. E. Jones were called to Kingman the first of the week in connection with a contested will case in which the Mohave county judge was disqualified.

Monday night the fire department was awakened by a false alarm. Fortunately they found it was such before making the run and were able to return to their slumbers.

Claus Burnhelm is back from Los Angeles where he went about ten days ago accompanied by his wife and daughter. Mrs. Burnhelm and daughter will remain in California for some time.

Ralph Cameron, former delegate to Congress before Arizona obtained statehood, was in Flagstaff the last of last week, visiting his mother, Mrs. Annie Cameron. He left here Sunday for New York.

Justice of the Peace Robert J. Kidd, and his family, were called to Los Angeles Sunday night by a message stating that his daughter was in such a critical condition that she was not expected to live.

Mr. and Mrs. Kuikendell of Seligman have been in town some days. They brought their baby here for treatment under Dr. Schermann and the little one seems to be gaining its health back rapidly.

Misses Marie and Rose Garrett left Sunday for Phoenix to be gone possibly until spring. Miss Marie Garrett will be secretary for Senator Hugh Campbell, while Miss Rose Garrett will visit friends in that city.

Walter Creswell of Winslow, is a new face at the Kahl Drug Co. store. While he is not a full-fledged pill mixer, he has aspirations along that line and hopes to make his way up through the napkin department.

Cagigas & Mier are to be congratulated on the fine appearance of their new store next to the Commercial hotel. Everything looks bright and new and the two gentlemen seem determined to show the trade every courtesy.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymon E. Marsh are receiving congratulations over the birth of a ten-pound baby boy. The young man arrived on January 7th at St. Joseph's sanitarium in Albuquerque. Mr. Marsh is expected back from that city tomorrow.

Miss Muncy, the nurse at the Milton hospital, has returned from a vacation spent in California. She has been gone some weeks.

R. E. Wood and his entire family, who have all been sick at once, are all improving nicely and a few days should see them out again.

Ralph Davis of Flagstaff has accepted a position with the J. C. Penney Co., and will become a resident of Winslow.—Winslow Mail.

M. I. Powers is back from Phoenix where he has been attending the meeting of the Arizona Wool Growers association of which he is secretary.

A marriage license was issued on the 11th to Joaquin Flores and Maria Martinez, both of Apex, Ariz. They were married in Williams on the 13th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Graham of south Beaver street are receiving congratulations over the birth to them of a baby boy. The youngster has been named after his father.

It is reported that Mrs. John Clark has been seriously ill with pneumonia at Aguila, Arizona, but is now better. Mr. and Mrs. Clark left here some weeks ago to spend the winter months in the valley.

At the Federated church next Sunday morning Rev. O. S. Baum will use for his topic, "Are You Going East or West?" In the evening he will take as his subject, "Out of Place."

H. K. Street, old timer and cattleman, was in town the first of the week from Fairbanks. Mr. Street is superintendent for the Boquillas Land & Cattle Co. He left Wednesday night for Phoenix.

L. B. Maxwell, for ten years with the forest service here, has resigned. The resignation went into effect last Saturday. At the time he was deputy supervisor under R. E. Marsh. He counts every man connected with the service his friend and they sincerely regret his decision to quit. He will be connected with the Hart Cattle company in the future and will still have Flagstaff as his headquarters.

S. L. Finley is back from a business trip on the coast.

William J. Mullen and Mrs. Mullen are rejoicing, and their friends with them, over the arrival on Tuesday night of a baby boy. The happy event took place at Milton hospital and Mrs. Mullen and the youngster are both getting along nicely.

Andy Matson, chef for the F. L. M. logging camp, is very sick with pneumonia at his home on North Beaver street. He is doing as well as could be expected and is not now in a dangerous condition. Many friends join in a wish for his speedy recovery.

Mr. George Hochderffer early in the week received a wire from his wife, Mrs. Hochderffer, in New York, stating that she had suffered a fall and been quite painfully injured. Mr. Hochderffer left for that city on Tuesday night.

Miss Bess Tidwell, teacher in the Emerson school, got back last Sunday night from an extended vacation spent in California. She was accompanied when she left by Miss Lenore Francis, county superintendent of schools, who is expected back the latter part of this week.

Mrs. S. S. Acker took part in the general moving at the court house the first of the year, but did not have to move far. She is in the office of the county superintendent of schools, looking after affairs until Miss Francis returns from her vacation in California.

Harry Henderson, who several years ago policed Coconino county as sheriff, during a short time that he abandoned his bands of sheep, was in Flagstaff Wednesday from his present town of Congress Junction. He was here while he was home and home while he was here.

Bruce Davis, brought to the county jail from Williams and held for examination as to his sanity, has been allowed to go on his way to the coast. While he is under a queer mental delusion that he gets his living from the air, he is harmless in his relation to others.

Mrs. J. H. Harnisch, who has been visiting Dr. Fronske and family of west Aspen avenue for some four weeks, has returned to her home in St. Louis. Mrs. Harnisch was here to be with her son, Edwin Harnisch, who has been ill with the influenza and pneumonia, but who has now entirely recovered.

G. H. Hamilton of the Lowell Observatory is back in town after a lengthy stay in Boston and other eastern points. While in the east Mr. Hamilton did his best to get in the army but did not succeed in his attempts. No aspirations, however, were cast on his abilities as a potential fighting man. Many friends welcome him back.

Mr. Tom Eakins and family left yesterday for Hammon, Oklahoma, where Mr. Eakins has a fine ranch. Mr. Eakins has been stock inspector for this county for a number of years and will leave many warm friends here who will regret his going. Mr. Eakins was an expert stockman and considered the best in the business.

A letter from Chas. H. Adams, formerly clerk of the superior court of this county, who is now with his family in Petosky, Mich., says: "Think I will like it here when it warms up next spring and I get to milking cows. Saw Charles Miller, who is now sheriff of this county, and he inquired about a lot of you fellows. He was superintendent of the A. L. & T. about fifteen years ago."

Sam Johnson writes from Maple, Arkansas, saying: "Give my best regards and hearty wishes for a Happy and Prosperous New Year to all my old friends and keep a good share for yourself." Sam was a resident of Flagstaff for a number of years before going back to Arkansas and it would not be surprising to see him back among the old gang some day.

Hy Fuller, one of the best stockmen that ever infested Northern Arizona, from the rim to the north line, was in Flagstaff Wednesday for a short time, on his way from looking over his interests in Navajo county, to his home in San Diego where he is stopping with his family when not doing things over in his real old Arizona home.

Bad roads and weather conditions have combined to make delivery of Uncle Sam's mail to the outlying districts very difficult and sometimes almost impossible. It took a good man and a good machine exactly six days to take the first class mail to Tuba City last week. W. S. Beard was the man and his job this kind of weather is not an enviable one.

Last week The Sun mistakenly said that Miss Van Ness had been transferred from the office of the Arizona Lumber and Timber company to the office of the Greenlaw Lumber company at Cliffs. That was a misstatement made in all confidence that it was correct. Miss Van Ness has accepted a position with Babbitt Bros. Trading company in their main office here.

Mrs. Mary E. Hughes of Le Mars, Iowa, arrived yesterday afternoon on No. 9 for a visit with her son, Mr. W. M. Hughes of Milton. It has been some three years since the two had seen each other and their pleasure in the meeting may be imagined.

Another Charge of Bootlegging. Anselmo Miguel, part owner and proprietor of the pool hall on San Francisco street, was placed under arrest Tuesday on the charge of selling intoxicating liquor. Officers Neil, Parson, and Jackson made the arrest. Miguel made bond in the sum of $500 and his hearing was set for today under City Magistrate Gilliland.

Hilburns Lose Little One. A death causing more than the ordinary amount of sadness, and calling forth more sincere and deep expressions of sympathy from the community at large than is usually the case, was that of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Hilburn. The shortness of the baby's stay but served to intensify the grief of parting and it is with genuine sorrow that The Sun joins their friends in offering sympathy to the bereaved parents.

Funeral services were held last Saturday afternoon, Rev. O. S. Baum of the Federated church officiating. Interment was at the Masonic cemetery.

THEATRE NEWS

Special productions with famous stars are booked for the coming week at the Orpheum theatre and the lover of "movies" had better sit up and take notice, for he will regret it very much if by accident he misses the extra line-up which starts with this evening's performance.

Tom Moore, a new Goldwyn star, will make his first official appearance tonight in "Just for Tonight," a beautiful love story full of real action and supported by an all-star cast. In addition to this there will be shown the U. S. A. series of two-reel war events. These special government films cover every phase of the world war and are released every other week. The first number, entitled "If Your Soldier's Hit" will be the subject shown tonight. It shows the remarkable efficiency of the medical detachment and field hospital corps, who rescue the wounded man from the place where he falls, rush him to the dressing station, then to the field hospital and finally to a base hospital where his recuperation is assured. The U. S. government is the sole owner of these films and present them to the American people with the desire that all will be officially informed regarding every phase of the war situation.

Saturday, matinee and night, the second showing of "The Lure of the Circus" will be shown. Also a western five-reel feature, "Revenge", featuring Edith Storey, will complete the bill. Both subjects are clean, wholesome and thoroughly interesting for children and grown-ups as well.

Sunday, matinee and night, Zane Grey's greatest romance, "The Light of the Western Stars," will be the steller attraction. This wonderful story needs no introduction and with Dustin Farnum playing the star role, its presentation as a 100 per cent perfect production is more than assured. The picture was taken at the Arizona and Mexican border last summer and is full of thrills and action. The biggest offering for the money ever presented to a Flagstaff audience. It's a real buy.

BOGUS HEROES.

There have been a lot of bogus heroes since the army began dispatching men back to the states for sickness, wounds, training and other reasons. Every soldier who has gone back has been a hero until proved otherwise, and the temptation not to prove themselves otherwise has been too much for some.

There is the case of the air service mechanic who went back with heart trouble. His home town newspaper printed his "diary," which recounted several stirring fights over the German lines, all imaginary. The nearest he had been to the front was Isoudan.

There is the case of the sergeant who lectured on the battle of Castagny for the Fourth Liberty Loan (and sold a lot of bonds, too) until he was found to have spent all his stay in France, barring traveling time, at Le Mans.

And there is the case, just to show how hard it is not to be a hero, of the major who returned and, merely obeying military regulations, refused to be interviewed. As far as he had got toward gunfire and danger was a training school at Langres. "Modestly declines to speak of his part in Chateau-Thierry fighting," was the second line of the heading over the story about him in the next morning's paper. The fault was the newspaper's, not the major's.

To date, in the eyes of the people back home, every soldier who has been in Europe has undergone the horrors of the front. Private Johnnie Jones of the S. O. S., whose greatest hardship in this war was taps at 9:30, was pictured in his home journal and captioned, "John Jones, of this city, now battling for freedom in the trenches." It is going to be hard to convince the home folks that of the 2,000,000 American in France, half of them, through no fault of their own, of course, never got under fire.

But once the idea is around, and once we get back with our first-hand knowledge of affairs over here, the bogus hero is going to have a pretty thorny trail.—Stars and Stripes.

AT THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

At the church of the Epiphany next Sunday, Jan. 19th, at 11 o'clock, the Rev. H. S. Brewster of Winslow will administer the sacrament of the Holy Communion. All friends and communicants are urgently requested to be present at this the first communion service of the new year.

The Sunday School service which begins every Sunday morning at 9:45 is continually increasing in interest and attendance. Parents whose children do not attend Sunday School elsewhere are cordially invited to send their children to enjoy the instruction and inspiration of the service.
